

CLAT EXAM PATTERN 2025 - NEW SYLLABUS UPDATE

CLAT 2025 Colleges - CLAT or Common Law Admission Test, is a national-level entrance exam for admission to undergraduate (UG) law courses. It's accepted by 24 National Law Universities (NLUs) and various other colleges/universities across India. Being the pre-eminent law entrance exam in the country, the CLAT exam attracts the highest number of test-takers. But the problem with many students is they aren't aware of the full scope of the CLAT score. For example, it is common knowledge that CLAT scores will be used for admission to 5-year integrated and one-year LLM programs offered by the NLUs. But, many other private, self-financed law colleges also accept CLAT scores. This means if you manage to secure even a decent rank or marks in the CLAT exam, you have a chance of getting admission to one of these colleges even if you miss out on an NLU. The good thing is many of these colleges, especially the affiliate colleges, have some popular names like Amity University, Bennet University, and GGSIU.

CLAT 2025: Law Schools Accepting CLAT Scores

Three types of law schools will accept CLAT 2025 scores to provide admission to their undergraduate and postgraduate courses:

CLAT Colleges 2025 - Participating NLUs

There are a total of 24 NLUs that are participating institutes of CLAT 2025.

1. 5-year LL.B. - The integrated law program is offered by all the 24 NLUs, with the seat intake standing at 3,213 seats.
2. One-year LLM - The program is offered by 21 NLUs, which have a combined intake of 1,217 seats.

Affiliate Colleges of CLAT 2025

These colleges have signed MOUs with the consortium and use CLAT 2025 scores for admission purposes. However, unlike the NLUs, affiliate colleges may also offer admission based on other entrance exams. For instance, while GITAM University uses CLAT scores, it also conducts its own entrance exam, the GITAM GAT. In all, there are 61 affiliates that are listed on the consortium website.
